

Parents, your child does
NOT have to do
NAPLAN

NAPLAN

- does NOT measure individual student achievement accurately or reliably
- is NOT diagnostic (it does not identify your child's strengths or needs)
- narrows the curriculum and encourages low-level thinking
- is harming some children
- is NOT being used to identify those schools needing extra funding.

Parents, write to your principal saying that you refuse permission for your child to do the NAPLAN tests.

You can use the letter on the reverse side of this flyer.
